

293.1

A technical drawing of a curved blade, possibly a sword or dagger, shown in a side profile. The blade is light gray with a black outline. It has a hilt at the top and a curved tip. Two vertical dimension lines are drawn on either side of the blade, indicating its length. The left dimension line is labeled '293.1' and the right dimension line is labeled '293.8'. The blade is centered vertically on a horizontal line that passes through the hilt and the tip.
