

293.1

A technical drawing of a curved blade, possibly a sword or dagger, shown in a side profile. The blade is light gray with black outlines. It has a hilt at the top and a curved tip. Two vertical dimension lines are drawn on either side of the blade, indicating its length. The left dimension line is labeled '293.1' and the right dimension line is labeled '293.8'. The drawing is centered vertically on a thin black line that extends above and below the blade.
